INCASA AND IU SCHOOL OF LAW ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE:

Magistrate David K. Najjar

Magistrate Najjar will play the role of Judge.

Mr. Najjar is the Magistrate for Hamilton County Superior Courts, having served in that capacity since his appointment in January of 2005. Prior to his appointment, he practiced law for over seven years, most of that time as a deputy prosecuting attorney in the Hamilton County Prosecutor's Office. During his tenure at the Prosecutor's Office, Magistrate Najjar was responsible for the prosecution of major and minor felonies, misdemeanors, traffic violations and the enforcement of child support. As Magistrate, he now presides over a great variety of cases, both civil and criminal.

He has been married to Karen, for 10 years and they have three beautiful children, Katherine (8), Nicholas (3) and Nathaniel (1). He is very active in his church, St. George Orthodox Church, as well as the Hamilton County Law Explorer Post.

In his duties with the Law Explorer Post, he helped to initiate the Hamilton County Mock Trial Tournament featuring teams from many of Hamilton County's high schools. He also coached mock trial teams from Hamilton County at the National Mock Trial Competition.

Jennifer Lukemeyer, B.S.,J.D.

Ms. Lukemeyer will play the role of our Defense Attorney.

Jennifer has practiced law with the firm VOYLES, ZAHN, PAUL, HOGAN & MERRIMAN., since 1997.

Prior to practicing with the firm, Jennifer practiced law with the Marion County Public Defenders Agency, in major felony court. The focus of her practice is criminal defense, including major felonies, juvenile matters, domestic violence, and appellate work.

She is a member of the Indianapolis Bar Association, National Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys, Indianapolis Inn of Courts. She recently served on the Marion County Criminal Justice Planning Commission Strategic Workshop for Juvenile Justice.

Jennifer is a graduate from the University of South Carolina (BS) and Southern Methodist University (JD).

Stephanie M. Smith, B.S., J.D.

Ms. Smith will play the role of our Prosecuting Attorney.

Stephanie is a Deputy Prosecutor with Hamilton County Prosecutor's Office., since 1998.

Stephanie is a graduate of Butler University, 1978. In 1994, she returned to the academic setting to study law at the Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis, graduating in 1998.

She started specializing in "crimes against children" in 2002. She has completed numerous seminars related to the prosecution of and investigation of such cases, most notably APRI's "Equal Justice" seminar as well as courses in child abuse prosecutions, on-line solicitation investigations and prosecutions, prosecutions utilizing DNA evidence and cross-examination techniques at the National Advocacy Center in Columbia, South Carolina.

Stephanie is faculty for Finding Words Indiana, is a member of Indiana's ICAC (Internet Crimes Against Children) Task Force, and an advisory board member of the Department of Justice's "Project Safe Childhood" program.
