

Use Your Voice

INCASA

55 Monument Circle, Ste. 1224 Indianapolis, IN 46204

WE ARE SEEKING NOMINATIONS FOR THE FIRST ANNUAL USE YOUR VOICE AWARD

This is your opportunity to recognize someone in the anti-sexual violence movement that is doing outstanding work! INCASA is implementing a new program that will acknowledge a professional in their respective field for providing quality services and rising to the challenge in the fight to end sexual violence.

To nominate someone:

- Nominee must be a professional working in an agency that is a current member program of INCASA.
- Professional must be working with sex crimes victims for the majority of their work load.
- Nominators must include the following information in their submissions: Nominee name, address, title, agency affiliation, length of time in position, length of time in field, information that makes this nominee stand out as an exemplary professional. What makes this person stand out as someone who uses their voice to fight to end sexual violence.
- Nominators must sign submissions and include phone number and email address in case we have questions.

INCASA Board of Directors will review all nominations and make a decision by the February board meeting.

All agency members are asked to mark February 18th from 1 pm to 3 pm on your calendars. To announce the winner the INCASA CEO will be traveling to the organization to personally present the award. There is no pre-notification of the award so we will all be on conference call until the award arrives, then we ask you to join in the celebration. Now for the information you've all been waiting for:

- Name recognition on a plaque housed at the coalition
- Recognition at the Annual Conference
- Recognition on the website and in the Impressions Newsletter
- Press Release to television and newspapers (local and Indianapolis)
- Award of $800 to award winner
- Award of $1,000 to the award winner's agency of employment

TIME'S WASTING SO GET THOSE NOMINATIONS IN BY JANUARY 18, 2008