

One out of every twelve men, or about 247,500 men in the state of Indiana, has been the victim of forcible rape sometime in his lifetime. That's 8.3% of men in Indiana.

ASK ME

WHERE MY BOUNDARY LINES ARE

BOUNDARY LINES

Ask.
Listen.
Respect.

A message from the Anti-Sexual Violence Movement in Indiana. www.incasa.org
This public awareness campaign is funded by the Rape Prevention Education Fund from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention administered by the Indiana State Department of Health.